

TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE QUILT DISPLAY AGREEMENT

The Texas Department of Agriculture's (TDA) quilts are available as a traveling display to be used in the promotion of Texas natural fibers. The themes of the quilts highlight various aspects of Texas agriculture and promote Texas along with the tradition of quilting in our state.

We appreciate your interest in participating in the display of TDA's quilt(s) and hope that your program attendees will gain a sense of satisfaction from the aesthetic quality and the workmanship of these beautiful pieces.

Conditions for use of the quilt(s):

1. The quilt should be cared for in such a way that it is not destroyed or damaged through travel or display.
2. The quilt should be kept covered throughout travel and stored in the provided container.
3. The cost of shipping to your location is included in the $10 per quilt fee charged by TDA, however, you will be responsible for the cost of returning the quilt(s). Additional shipping information will be included in the quilt container. Please follow those instructions.
4. The quilt(s) should be returned to TDA immediately following the agreed upon timeframe.
5. The quilt(s) is (are) your responsibility while under your care, including, but not limited to theft, loss, or damage; you agree to reimburse TDA, including all associated costs, in the event the quilt(s) is (are) lost, stolen or damaged.

TDA thanks you for your promotion of Texas natural fibers. We are supportive of your decision to display the wonderful beauty and strength of our Texas textile industry through the exhibition of these skillfully crafted quilts. TDA is also appreciative of the time, care and creativity shown by you, our Lone Star artisans and craftspeople, which make the Texas fiber industry a living tradition.

We hope your event participants are inspired by the display to create their own quilts incorporating Texas fibers and Texas themes, and wish you and your organization continued success. Please contact Mary York, TDA's state coordinator for marketing campaigns, at (512) 463-8289 with any questions regarding the quilt or its display.
